Cultural Program Participation Rules

The Telugu Association of North America invites participation from Telugu artists (professional and amateur) for the 15th TANA conference. The emphasis of the cultural program is based on the village atmosphere reflecting Telugu culture and heritage. The list of items includes, but is not limited to:

Folk Songs	Folk Dances	Classical Dances	Movie Songs
Classical Songs	Mimicry	Drama	Movie Dances
Dance Drama	Skits	Instrumental Music	Standup Comedy
Ekatrabhinayam

The TANA 2005 Cultural Committee set the following rules and regulations:

- No Solo items are allowed with exception to: Mimicry, Standup Comedy and Ekatrabhinayam.
- The items should reflect Telugu culture and heritage. Items that are not in Telugu will not be accepted.
- Completed entry forms should be postmarked by March 31, 2005.
- The participant(s) should submit their production requirements by March 31, 2005.
- Each item should be submitted on videotapes in its entirety and should be postmarked by March 31, 2005. TANA or the cultural committee is neither responsible nor liable for lost videotapes or misplaced communications. The videotapes WILL NOT be mailed back whether or not they are selected for performance.
- The videotape must be high quality to enable the cultural committee to view the program effectively. Videotapes of poor quality will not be reviewed.
- All decisions by the Cultural Committee are final.
- Decisions of the Cultural Committee will be communicated to participants by May 15th, 2005.
- TANA requires all participants and organizers to register for the convention. The program(s) by participants who do not pre-register by the first early registration deadline are subject to cancellation.
