

KALPANA NUKVARAPU
Serving TANA since 2014

Seeking your support for my candidacy as
"Regional Representative SOUTH WEST" for 2023-25

- I've played a key role in the success of various programs and activities in the TANA Southwest region since 2014.
- I've inspired and empowered women to pursue their passions for a successful balance between their professional and family lives.
- I've taken the lead in organizing several events in TANA - Austin, including Women's Day (held twice), the Koti Sarigamalu Musical concert, and a 5K Marathon.
- I've coordinated various religious events, such as the Sai Baba Centennial, Ganesh Chaturthi, Sriram Navami, Holy, Sankranti Celebrations, and Annamma Chariya Day, among other.
- I've arranged meals and distributed blankets to orphanages and individuals in need.
- I've contributed and helped in various fundraising endeavors for both local and national.
- In TANA events, I have provided guidance and support to numerous women-owned small businesses and helped single mothers.
- I hosted webinars on wills and trusts to raise awareness within the community.
- I consistently lend support and volunteer actively for local temples and other community organizations.
- Enhance efforts and initiatives in the Southwest Region.
- Introduce and pass down the richness of Indian culture to future generations.
- I persist in encouraging women to contribute to shaping a vibrant society for younger generations, as I believe a woman is the most capable architect for the community.
- Dedicating myself to serving the less fortunate and improving the community in a meaningful manner.
- I have spearheaded successful programs, expanded TANA Seva, championed women entrepreneurship, and advocated for cultural activities.
- I arrange workshops, actively contribute to TEAM SQUARE, and strive to bring about positive change in TANA.

Engaging in community service is my passion, and I'm actively seeking more opportunities to enhance and contribute further. - Kalpana Nukavarapu
